

STATEMENT OF ATTAINMENT IN CONSTRUCTION

(Comply with Site Work Processes/Procedures - Contextualised for Construction COVID Marshal)

RIIGOV201E - SG00008760

COVID MARSHAL

TARGET: Construction Site COVID Marshals, as required by the NSW Government for the construction industry re-start, following pandemic pause restrictions.

DELIVERY: Self-Paced (Allow 3-4 hours)

(Also available: Virtual delivery via Teams or Zoom for groups/projects)

TIMING: Continuous enrolments available

COURSE PROFILE: This unit covers the skills and knowledge required to comply with site work processes/procedures specific to COVID-19 safety, across civil/construction projects, in accordance with public health orders and state government COVID-19 guidance materials for construction sites.

TOPIC OVERVIEW:

○ Obtain, interpret & confirm work requirements, documents & procedures

○ Identify roles/responsibilities & implement COVID-19 safe plans

○ Carry out work according to procedures & apply local risk controls

○ Monitor work & consult with others to improve site processes

○ Identify & report incidents/non-compliance and complete written documentation

ON COMPLETION:

On successful completion, participants will receive a nationally accredited STATEMENT OF ATTAINMENT IN CONSTRUCTION (Comply with Site Work Processes/Procedures - Contextualised for Construction COVID Marshal) - RIIGOV201E.

Fee-free training for construction

FEE-FREE TRAINING FOR CONSTRUCTION